Corby Spirit and Wine Ltd. whiskies earned top accolades last week at the 2020 Canadian Whisky Awards — the company took home six major awards at the 10th annual event, including Whisky of the Year for Pike Creek 21-Year Old Oloroso Cask Finish, Distillery of the Year for Hiram Walker & Sons, as well as Blender of the Year for Dr. Don Livermore. The winners were announced at the Canadian Whisky Awards, held during the annual Victoria Whisky Festival in British Columbia.

“We are beyond proud of our brands and the recognition received this year at the Canadian Whisky Awards. These awards demonstrate Corby and Hiram Walker’s deep commitment to continue innovating, pushing the boundaries, and producing a diverse range of quality whiskies,” said Keeshan Selvakumar, company brand director.

Corby’s-owned Canadian whisky brands are produced at the Hiram Walker & Sons distillery in Windsor, Ont. — which was recognized for the third year in a row as Distillery of the Year by the Canadian Whisky Awards. Additionally, master blender Livermore was honoured as Blender of the Year for the second consecutive year.
